ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
REVISING DUE DATE FOR COMMENTS ON MODIFICATION

This ruling is issued to revise the due date previously set by Assigned Commissioner's Ruling dated May 30, 2002 for comments concerning the potential modification in the Commission's adopted treatment of wireless carriers' assigned area code in connection with the implementation of area code changes.

By the May 30 ruling, comments were solicited regarding the potential change in the policy adopted in Decision 96-08-028 relating to the "grandfather" provision for wireless carriers whereby wireless carriers are permitted to retain their preexisting area code assignment after a geographic split, even when the rate center of the carriers' assigned NXX code lies within the geographic boundaries prescribed for the new area code. By this ruling the due dates for opening and reply comments are extended by one week.

IT IS RULED that:

1. The previously set due date for opening comments on the above-referenced issue is hereby extended one week, from June 10 to June 17, 2002.
2. The previously set due date for reply comments is likewise extended from June 17 to June 24, 2002.

Dated June 6, 2002, at San Francisco, California.
